

EPSON Disc Producer

EXCEED YOUR VISION

Professional quality disc producing in a small easy-to-use package

- Save on printing costs. Produce professional quality CD & DVD copies directly from your own office
- Effortlessly duplicate discs with photo quality individually printed labels
- Jobs can be queued and produced even when unattended, allowing office staff to focus on other work
- Quick & Convenient. No lead time required
- Say goodbye to traditional enrolment packages. Prospectus Folders are a thing of the past! Welcome new parents and student to your school with a single DVD. You could include a 'welcome' from the Principal, an interactive tour of the school, PDF forms for parents to print out or file on their own computer. What your school includes is completely up to you! Imagine how impressed new or potential students and parents would be? Let's not forget either, the mass amount of paper that your school will save each year.

TESTIMONIAL

"The entire process is all so logical and intuitive. To be frank, we hardly bothered to look at the documentation before we started using the Disc Producer - it was that easy."

"Importantly, by being able to leave duplication right up until the time it's needed, rather than having the lead time required of printers, if changes occur - as often they do - they can be done at the last moment and not cause any wastage"
